BAD CONGESTION IN FREIGHT AT S. F. REMAINS

Lurline Reports Cargo Pours In as Fast as It Can Be Taken to Islands

Freight congestion in San Francisco of cargo awaiting shipment to the islands is still as bad as ever. Cargo is piling up as fast as it can be taken out, according to officers of the Matson steamer Lurline, which arrived this morning at 7:30 from the coast and docked at Pier 10. She moved over to Pier 15 after the Matsonia left there for San Francisco at 10 o'clock this morning.

Although the Lurline took aboard every pound she could carry and had a mass of machinery, motor trucks, huge steel sugar-mill cog wheels and other freight on her decks in addition to a capacity cargo in her hold, she had to leave almost as much more behind.

The steamer left San Francisco one day late because she had to go on the dock for cleaning and painting, according to Captain Troel K. Smith. When she reaches San Francisco again she will be given annual inspection of her hull and boilers by federal inspectors in that port.

The Lurline brought 45 cabin and five steerage passengers to Honolulu, also 6544 tons of cargo for Honolulu and 1025 for Kahului. Mail was 250 bags and automobiles 30. Honolulu passengers and other island residents returning on the Lurline included Frederick Anderson, superintendent of the Boys' Industrial School of Wailaie and postmaster at that place; W. E. Wall, surveyor of the territory of Hawaii, Mrs. Wall and their children; also F. P. Waterhouse, secretary of the Waterhouse Company. The Lurline was in drydock one and a half days. Her chief officer is L. Serrao; William McLennan is chief engineer, George F. Roberts, purser, and C. J. Lombardo, steward.

HARBOR NOTES

Tuesday the Union Oil tanker Lansing steamed from Port San Luis for Honolulu.

Exports from Hawaii in September were $33,546 in value, against $29,425 in August.

Arrival at San Francisco Tuesday of the O. S. K. steamer Inaho Maru is reported. She left here October 3.

Arrival at Sydney October 17, Australasian line, of the Oceanic steamer Sonoma, from Honolulu October 2, is reported.

After a voyage of 24 days the schooner A. F. Coats, from Kahului September 23, arrived at Port Townsend Tuesday.

The Seamen's Institute will hold its annual social Friday evening, November 3. Many invitations have been sent out by the committee.

The Inter-Island steamer Kilauea brought 4736 bags of H. A. sugar, 335 of coffee and other produce Tuesday from Kona and Kauai ports of Hawaii.

Next mail from San Francisco will arrive Monday morning in the Oceanic steamer Sierra, from San Francisco for this port at 2:15 Tuesday afternoon.

The lumber schooner Alice Cooke sailed from Port Townsend for Honolulu Tuesday. The schooner Roy Somers sailed at the same time from Bellingham for Kahului.

New York reports says the American-Hawaiian line has sold the Arborean and Georgian to Norse shipping interests, which recently bought the Honolulu and renamed her Thorwald Halvorsen.

The Inter-Island steamer Mauna Kea reports the following sugar awaiting shipment on Hawaii, by plantations and bags: Olas, 6892; Waiakoa, 6300; Onomes, 8711; Hanakula, 5811; 2250; Punaluu, 9755; Honoua, 5800.

The Pacific Mail liner Venezuela has arrived at Corinto on the East coast, en route to San Francisco to enter the transpacific trade. She is due to steam from San Francisco for 2250; Punaluu, 9755; Honoua, 5800.

Chief Engineer Michael J. Foley of the China Mail liner China died October 6 while eating dinner with Mrs. Foley in a San Francisco restaurant. The China's new chief is W. J. Robbins, formerly first assistant engineer of the steamer.

The firm of Fred L. Waldron, Ltd., agent for Fanning Island, has chartered the schooner Allie I. Alger, here October 8 from Port Townsend, to take coal and general supplies to Fanning Island. The schooner Luka left here Friday for Fanning with bunker coal and supplies.

"Joe" Farrell, former chief steward on the Matson steamer Manoa, has been succeeded on the China Mail liner China by H. W. Leffmann. Farrell is said to have lost his position as chief steward on the China because he ordered Yee Ling, a director of the China Mail line, out of the pantry.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Basset of Fort Kamehameha welcomed on Saturday last a little daughter. Mr. Basset is an engineer of the Coast Artillery Corps.

Wilson Wins In Voting Aboard Lurline at Sea

Woodrow Receives 60 Votes, Hughes 39, Benson 9, in Election on Steamer

Woodrow Wilson is a strong favorite with the passengers and crew of the Matson steamer Lurline. When the steamer arrived from San Francisco this morning Capt. Troel K. Smith said a straw vote taken at sea Tuesday resulted in 60 votes for the Democratic candidate for president, while Charles Evans Hughes, the Republican candidate, polled only 39 votes. The Socialist candidate, Allan Benson, got none.

Despite the way in which the voting ran toward the present incumbent of the White House, that portion of the ballot on which voters were requested to designate their political affiliations showed that 44 of the voters were Republican, 22 Democratic, 32 non-partisan and 10 Socialist.

All on the steamer except the livestock voted. The crew took particular interest in the election. Men voters numbered 82 and women 23.

MATSONIA SAILS ON TIME FOR MAINLAND

Taking 132 cabin passengers and 45 steerage, also all the canned plums ready for shipment here, the Matson steamer Matsonia left at 10 o'clock this morning from Pier 15 for San Francisco.

Among the Honolulu and island residents leaving on the steamer were Lorrin Andrews, E. F. Cykler, Mrs. A. E. Ebersole and Raymond Ebersole, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kennedy and others.

The T. K. K. steamer Siberia Maru, formerly the Pacific Mail liner Siberia, which has not called at this port for more than a year, since she was a Pacific Mail steamer, was sighted coming up from Yokohama at 8 o'clock this morning. She docked later at Pier 7 and is steaming for San Francisco tomorrow morning. The Siberia brought 279 Asiatics and 1057 tons of cargo to Honolulu.
